Kettle Falls Seventh-day Adventist Church

Financial Aid Policies

For students wishing to attend Colville Valley Junior Academy

1. At least one parent must be a member in good standing in the Kettle Falls Seventh-day Adventist Church.
2. Depending on available funds, the maximum amount a student may receive is 50% of the current year's tuition.
3. Aid for an entire year is not guaranteed or given in advance but is transferred monthly to the student's account.
4. Financial aid will be discontinued if the parents/guardians fail to pay promptly each month that part of the tuition not covered by financial aid.
5. If requested to do so, parents/guardians must be willing to work at the school as assigned by the principal to offset the amount received in aid. Compensation for such work is $7 per hour.
6. If requested, the parents/guardians of the student(s) must be willing to submit a current federal tax return to the chairperson of the finance committee.
7. To demonstrate that they place a high priority on Christian education, families receiving aid will live a frugal lifestyle, will be good stewards of their income and property, and will limit themselves in any outlay for recreational equipment, vacations, etc.
8. The student(s) receiving aid must be recommended by the school principal as being fully compliant with school rules and working to capacity academically.
